Legacy Plaza East, Conference Rooms ABC

- i. The court overseeing the ongoing federal lawsuit against HUD's FY25 NOFO has issued a preliminary injunction, ruling that HUD is bound to the FY24-FY25 NOFO that was released in July 2024. In compliance with the ruling, HUD released a modified FY24-FY25 NOFO on January 9th, which allows CoCs to submit their FY24-FY25 priority listings to automatically renew project funding.
 - 1. As this is a preliminary ruling, awards cannot be finalized until the federal court issues a final decision in the case, which is anticipated in February. If HUD ultimately wins, they will likely revert to the FY25 NOFO that was released in November 2025.
- ii. Under the modified FY24-FY25 NOFO, CoCs must conduct a local competition if any projects are reallocated, replaced, or are renewing for the first time in 2026. Otherwise, CoCs are able to re-submit their FY24-FY25 priority listing to automatically renew project funding. Under both paths, CoCs must submit all materials by February 9th.
- iii. It is proposed and recommended by AWH4T's Funding Committee to prohibit any project from reallocating or replacing FY25 funding, in order to allow the CoC to submit its FY24-FY25 priority listing for automatic renewal.
 - 1. Only Black Queer Tulsa would need to apply to HUD for grant renewal, since this is their first renewal.
- iv. Motion to approve: Michael DuPont; Second: Stephanie Horten
 - 1. All in favor: Approved

3. Lead Agency Updates

- a. Data Updates, Olivia Denton Koopman
 - i. In AWH4T emergency shelters, 1,238 individuals were served in the month of December, representing 123% of system capacity.
 - ii. By the end of November, AWH4T officially placed 949 individuals in housing, reaching 95% of the CoC's goal of 1,000 housing placements by the end of 2025.
 - iii. As of December 19th, 2025, Safe Move Tulsa has officially closed 3 encampments and housed 42 individuals.
 - 1. The average length of homeless experience for individuals engaged with Safe Move Tulsa is 5 years, whereas the average time between Safe Move enrollment and housing placement move-in is 21 days.

CoC Program Competition

Where we stand now...

- The preliminary injunction still stands. The Court's final judgment is anticipated at the end of February, after which awards can be finalized.
- The AWH4T FY25 Priority Listing was submitted to HUD, per the Leadership Council's vote last month. Black Queer Tulsa also submitted their renewal application, which we anticipate will be renewed, per the NOFO and court order.
- No recipient agencies have yet heard from HUD regarding their renewals. If they do, we ask that the let us know as soon as possible.
- We are planning for an early NOFO this year. HUD's priorities are clear from the now rescinded NOFOs, so we're examining our processes and materials with those in mind.
